

the unlike guide to

max's trip to berlin

custom tour

created: June 14 2008

compiled by

Unlike Media, Ltd.

Dolce Pizza

Focaccia, capiche?

Food | Schöneberg

Mon Fri, 11:00 23:00; Sat Sun, 12:00 23:00

Best take-out pizza in this quarter of Berlin, with indoor and outdoor seating if you want to make an outing of it. Though the joint is sometimes filled with long queues, speedy service 'round the clock make up for the hungry crowd—as do the pizzas, served on fresh Italian focaccia bread, sprinkled with creative topping and baked by two real Italians.

Dolce also has two additional shops, with another Schöneberg location at Belzigerstr. 73, and one in Kreuzberg at Hagelbergerstr. 16.

Dolce Pizza

Maassenstrasse 6, 10777 Berlin

T: +493043205610

E. info@dolce-centrale.net

W. www.dolce-pizza.de

Transport:

[U1][U2][U3][U4] at

Nollendorfplatz

Italian

fast

food

pizza

photo © unlike media Marco

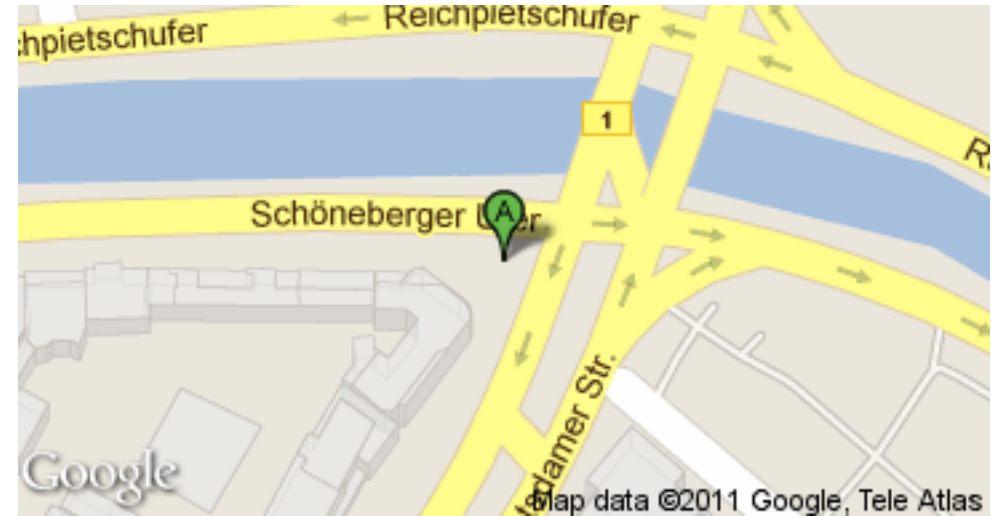

Heyer

40seconds

Blast off in t-minus 40

Club | Tiergarten

Fri Sat 23:00 Open End

Spacy disco dancing darlings bop around to themed parties. Has its mellow time, too.

The elevator takes 40 seconds to bring you up to the seventh floor. Doors open to a 1980's style bar/lounge/club where you can look onto Berlin's lateral skyline beyond Potsdamer Platz.

Pros: The elevator, the view, the interior.

40seconds

Potsdamer Straße 58, 10785

Berlin

T: +493089064241

E. info@40seconds.de

W. www.40seconds.de

Transport:

[U2] at Mendelssohn Bartholdy Park

design

bellevue

photo © 40 seconds

Bauhaus Archiv Berlin

All Things Bauhaus

Interested in learning about Bauhaus? Look no further.

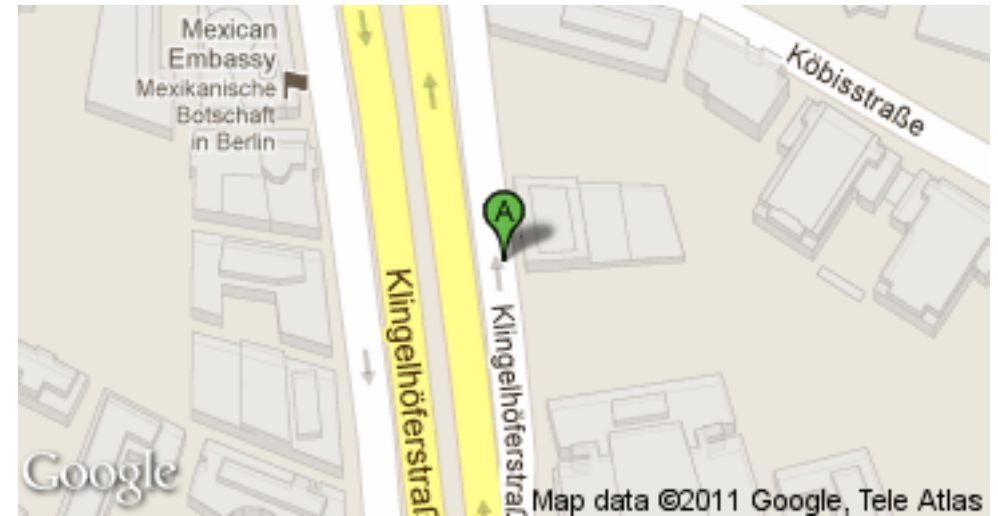

Berlin's Bauhaus archive offers an enormous collection of work from the Bauhaus School (1919-1933), treating architecture, design, art and photography.

The building, itself an example of Bauhaus aesthetics, exhibits work by famous Bauhaus artists including Walter Gropius, Mies van der Rohe, Paul Klee, Wassily Kandinsky, Lyonel Feininger and Oskar Schlemmer.

You can't talk German art without paying respects to Bauhaus.

Art | Tiergarten

Wed Mon And Holidays 10:00 17:00, Closed On Tue (Except For Holidays)

Bauhaus Archiv Berlin
Klingelhofer Strasse 14, 10785
Berlin
T: +49 30 2540 020
E. bauhaus@bauhaus.de
W. www.bauhaus.de

Transport:
U Nollendorfplatz

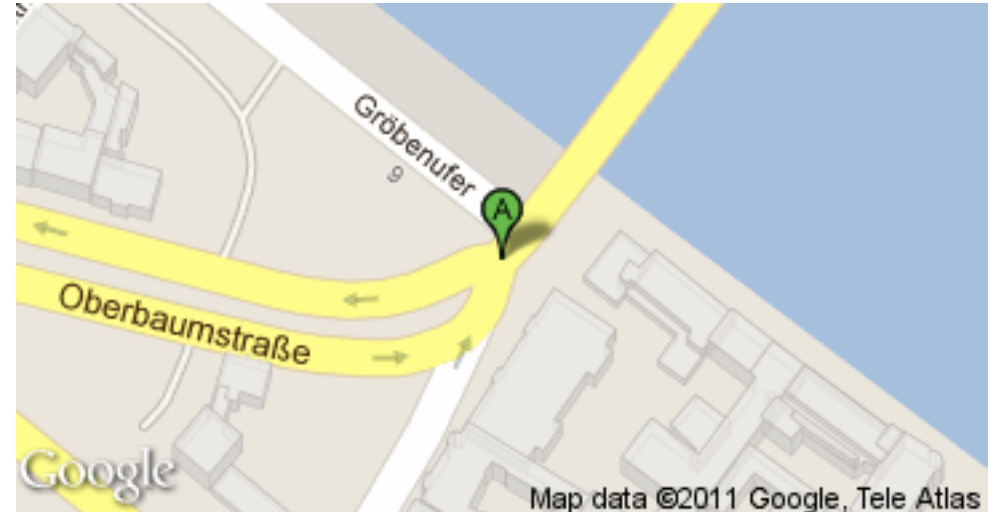

architecture
design
historic photography

Watergate

Space station techno

Club | Kreuzberg

Wed Sun, 00:00 Open End

Set in one hell of a cool locale, Kreuzbergian club Watergate is famed mostly for three key features.

Firstly, the view. Its downstairs floor has a glass-front panorama of the Spree from which you can take in the architecture of both the Oberbaumbrücke and the spate of uglier new buildings popping up on the opposite shore. Outside, on board a decked platform—where you can really have the feeling of dancing on water—you can catch one of the amazing sunrises reflecting across the water if you stay around long enough.

Secondly, the intimate main floor is illuminated by a technicolor lighting installation spanning the entire roof—leaving you with both a decidedly topsy turvy sense of orientation as well as the feeling of being on board some kind of intergalactic space station.

Its third—and least gimmicky—trademark is its programming. No weekend goes by without at least one big draw DJ name being plucked from the roster of an international techno label—think Perlon, Get Physical, Wagon Repair or BPitch Control. This place certainly bucks the city's trashy club trend, but if purely world class minimal techno is what your after, then you're at the right place.

Dress yourself up not too fancy, but up to club code and during summer months be prepare to cue a bit if your arriving around peak time at 02:00.

Watergate
Falckensteinstrasse 49, 10997
Berlin
T: +493061280396
W. www.water-gate.de

Transport:
[U1] at Schlesisches Tor

bellevue
water fancy
after-hours wasted clubs techno soundcloud

Tresor

Pilgrimage to the techno palace

Club | Kreuzberg

Wed Sat, 23:00 Open End

Tresor continues to attract the finest DJs from Germany and abroad.

The dedicated and knowledgeable regulars are more than happy to accept the crowded dance-floors for their slice of heavenly house, techno and electro.

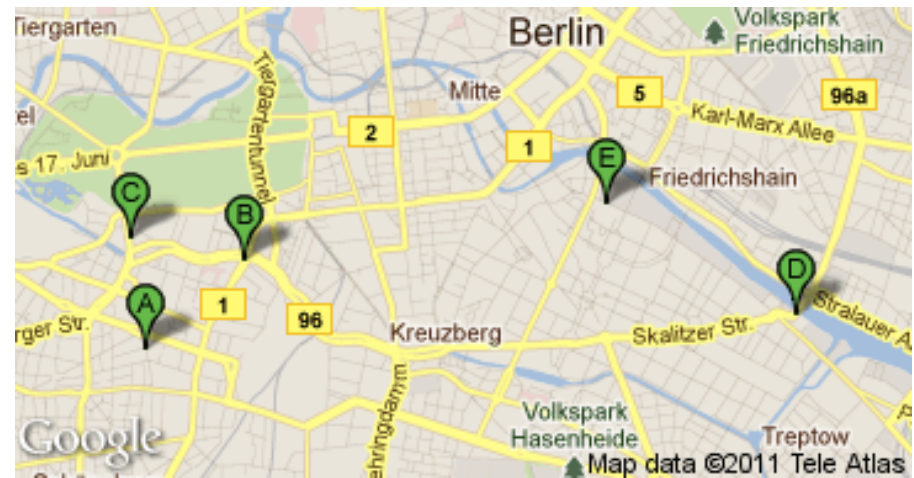

Without compromise, Tresor has led the Berlin club scene for more than fifteen years. The famous club is the pilgrimage of all true techno fans. Be tough and spend a night in the underground concrete techno-palace where DJ heroes have spent their better nights.

Tresor
Köpenicker Strasse 70, 10179
Berlin
E. club@tresorberlin.com
W. www.tresorberlin.de

Transport:
[U8] at Heinrich-Heine Strasse

architecture
design
underground old school techno
warehouse soundcloud

Notes

- A) Dolce Pizza
- B) 40seconds
- C) Bauhaus Archiv Berlin
- D) Watergate
- E) Tresor